

Wednesday – November 29th Pre-Conference Mentor Seminar

A	6:30-9:00 p.m. <input type="checkbox"/> Plan on me for hors d'oeuvres Please indicate: I am a DAC _____ I am a trained, Level I State Endorsement mentor _____ I am a principal _____
---	--

Thursday – November 30th and Friday – December 1st

Please indicate the sessions you will be attending with a check in the box to the left of the item. (We select room size, order meals, and print materials according to your choices.) REMEMBER! Note that we are starting with individual breakout sessions as we did last year!

FOR EVERYONE

1	THURSDAY ONLY 7:30-8:15 a.m. REGISTRATION AND CONTINENTAL BREAKFAST <input type="checkbox"/> Plan on me for breakfast
2	THURSDAY ONLY 12:30 – 1:45 PM Lunch <input type="checkbox"/> Plan on me for lunch
3	THURSDAY ONLY 7:30 – 9:00 p.m. C.A.U.S. Forum on Arts Education in Utah. <input type="checkbox"/> The Consortium for Arts in Utah Schools gathering will be facilitated by the Utah Arts Council. All are welcome. Membership in the consortium consists mostly of university educators, K-16 administrators, professional artists, and interested citizens.
4	FRIDAY ONLY 7:30-8:15 a.m. REGISTRATION AND CONTINENTAL BREAKFAST <input type="checkbox"/> Plan on me for breakfast
5	FRIDAY ONLY 12:30 – 1:45 PM Lunch <input type="checkbox"/> Plan on me for lunch

FOR CLASSROOM TEACHERS and ARTS SPECIALISTS (Parents, Mentors welcome!)

5	THURSDAY and FRIDAY 8:30 a.m. – 3:30 p.m. Classroom Instruction in and through the Arts (a two-day rotation) <input type="checkbox"/> All K-6 teachers will experience a participatory session in each artform that is focused on proven, successful teaching and learning processes and connection strategies in the arts. Student work from this fall will be shown, and students who created it will be present. An INFINITY event will be presented by professional artists, including small group reflecting time in company with those artists. Teachers will create their own instructional plan to implement upon return to their students-- with the advantages of expert feedback and collaboration with others. The PTA Reflection winners will be presented and winning teaching ideas shared.
---	--

FOR ADMINISTRATORS, SPECIAL EDUC., and MENTORS (parents of special needs children welcome!)

6	THURSDAY ONLY 8:30 a.m. – 10:00 a.m. Looking at the Progress of the New Elementary Core. <input type="checkbox"/> This session will preview and invite feedback on the most current drafts of the Elementary Arts Core Curriculum revision in progress.
7	THURSDAY ONLY 10:30 a.m.-12:30 p.m. The Administrators' World <input type="checkbox"/> This session will address the current interests/needs of Principals and Dist. Arts Coordinators. Please add your suggestions of needs/interests: carol.goodson@schools.utah.gov
8	THURSDAY ONLY 9:30-12:30 p.m. <input type="checkbox"/> The Arts and Serving Special Needs Children workshop features the perspectives and wisdom of both parent teacher, makes for a rich and valuable experience for the participants, so we are really excited about this!
9	THURSDAY ONLY 1:45 – 3:30 p.m. INFINITY EVENT The INFINITY Event will be attended by all conference participants. It is an artwork commissioned expressly for this “Connecting the Dots” networking conference, created and presented by professional artists. It’s primary purpose is to feed the souls of all of us as people, not as educators. It will present as only the arts can, the meaning of the “Connecting the Dots” theme inspiring this conference.

Directions to Davis Conference Center

Use I-15 Exit #334 if traveling North to reach Layton. Use I-15 Exit #335 if traveling South to reach Layton.

2006 Networking Schedule

“Connecting the Dots”

...with a golden thread

New Schedule!

All K-6 teachers will experience a participatory session in each artform that is focused on proven, successful teaching and learning processes and connection strategies in the arts. Student work from this fall will be shown, and students who created it will be present. An INFINITY event will be presented by professional artists, including small group reflecting time in company with those artists. Teachers will create their own instructional plan to implement upon return to their students-- with the advantages of expert feedback and collaboration with others.

CAUS Forum

The Consortium for Arts in Utah Schools gathering will be facilitated by the Utah Arts Council. Membership in the consortium consists mostly of university educators, K-16 administrators, professional artists, and interested citizens. All are welcome to attend.

Thursday – November 30th

Time	Sessions
7:30-8:30 am	Registration, Exhibits, and Continental Breakfast
8:30-12:30 pm	Two Breakout sessions . . . with a networking/reflecting break in between
12:30-1:30 pm	Lunch (exhibits will be open)
1:45- 3:30 pm	General Session: INFINITY Event The INFINITY Event will be attended by all conference participants. It is an artwork commissioned expressly for this “Connecting the Dots” networking conference, created and presented by professional artists. It’s primary purpose is to feed the souls of all of us as people, not as educators. It will present as only the arts can, the meaning of the “Connecting the Dots” theme inspiring this conference.
3:30- 5:00 pm	Options Include: Level I Endorsement Roundtable, Networking Time, Exhibits, Down Time.
5:00	DAC: Dinner and Sharing Time
	Participants: Dinner on their own
7:30- 9:00 p.	CAUS Forum on Arts Education in Utah

Friday – December 1st

Time	Sessions
7:30-8:30 am	Registration and Continental Breakfast (no exhibitors)
8:30-12:30 p.m.	Two Breakout sessions . . . with a networking/reflecting break in between
12:30-1:15 pm	Lunch (no exhibitors)
1:15- 2:45	PTA Reflections Winners and Teacher Winning Ideas
2:45 pm	Conference adjourned. Thanks for coming and travel safely!